Marty Koelsch '23, MFA (Rinehart School of Sculpture)

Student Employment

MICA offers a range of job opportunities for qualified graduate students in academic departments, research centers, and administrative offices. Click here for a glimpse at the range of opportunities typically available in a given academic year.

All MICA graduate employment opportunities are routinely under review and may become available at different times throughout the year. Students can review and apply directly for current job openings on the Careers @ MICA webpage. Additional questions may be directed to graduatestudies@mica.edu.

Elena Kovylyayeva '23, MFA (Hoffberger School of Painting)

The Office of Culture & Identity

Greetings and Welcome!

MICA is an exciting place to grow and develop as an artist. We want to take this time to welcome you to our campus. The Office of Culture and Identity's (OCI) mission is to create educational, social, and professional spaces and networks for students, staff, faculty, and allies to build community and access one another as resources and support systems. OCI is always striving for transparency and creating an institutional culture where diversity, equity, inclusion, and social justice are ingrained in everything we do. Our philosophy is based on fostering recognition and respect for the voices of all students. We are eager to meet you. Let's Thrive with Baltimore Together. Follow us on Instagram (@mica_oci) and check out our newsletter here.

Electives Through MPS and MA/MBA Programs

The Office of Open Studies is offering three elective courses to Graduate Studies students to enroll in this semester. If you are interested in learning more about conducting user research, using your design skills to tell data stories, or strategic, market-responsive entrepreneurship, check these out below. More details and how to register here.

- Foundations of UX Research: Tue 8 PM - 10 PM (online)
- Visual Storytelling I: Wed 8PM - 10PM (online)
- Forecasting and Realization: Thu 6PM - 10PM (in person)
