

Employee Loan Request

Loans are available to full time employees and are for financial hardship situations only. Proper documentation is required as proof of financial hardship. Financial hardship withdrawals are allowed for the following reasons:

- To buy a primary residence
- To prevent foreclosure or eviction from your home
- To pay college tuition for yourself or a dependent, provided the tuition is due within the next 12 months
- To pay unreimbursed medical expenses for you or your dependents

Employee loan requests will be approved only if all of the following loan guidelines are met:

- The employee must be employed for one year.
- Loan amount is limited to the employee's net pay for one pay cycle.
- Repayment schedule cannot exceed six consecutive pay cycles.
- First repayment to begin no later than the second pay after the date of the loan.
- Employee is limited to one loan in a twelve-month period.
- Loan request must be authorized by Human Resources.
