CHOOSING ELECTIVE COURSEWORK

Recommended Graduate Electives

Review the Schedule of Courses for a complete list of graduate studio, liberal art and professional development elective courses. Students can also choose from dozens of elective courses, graduate or undergraduate, listed in the full schedule of classes on the MICA website.

Baltimore Student Exchange Program

Explore elective courses at our partner institutions (Johns Hopkins University and University of Baltimore) through the Baltimore Student Exchange Program. Forms and approval required through Enrollment Services. Contact the BSEP Coordinator in the Office of Enrollment Services with questions / approval.

Independent Study

Independent study courses provide students the opportunity to develop and conduct self-designed research projects in collaboration with campus faculty. Independent study courses require the instructor approval, and a completed contract complying with MICA standards. Forms should be returned to the Office of Enrollment Services.

Internship for Credit

Professional internships may also be substituted for studio / liberal arts elective credit with permission from your program director. Students must attend an Internship Orientation through the Office of Career Development. Visit MICA's Career Development Office online for more information.

Enrolling in Elective Courses

Graduate students can register for graduate - level courses via MICA's online enrollment system. To register for an undergraduate level course, with prerequisites or enrollment restrictions, you will need to request approval through your graduate advisor.

Advising/ Registration Support

It is strongly recommended that you schedule an advising appointment to review your degree plan / progress to graduation. Your graduate enrollment advisor is available to assist you in the enrollment process. Contact Enrollment Services, enrollmentservices@mica.edu.
