

Four ways to report a community member for non-compliance:

If you feel comfortable and are not in danger, approach the person and make them aware of the issue.

Call Campus Safety using the 24-Hour Dispatch Line: (410) 225-2245

Reach out to your supervisor or a trusted faculty or staff member to make the report.

Submit a formal complaint by using either the links on the MICA/App, or by using this official form.

Offenses that could be reported:

- Not following social distancing directives
- Not following limitations on the number of people in gatherings
- Not wearing a face-covering wherever required
- Not adhering to quarantine/isolation requirements
