

Maryland Institute College of Art

Certification of Academic Activity

The American Competitiveness Workforce Act of 1998 allows payment of honoraria and associated travel and incidental expenses to B1, B2, WB and WT visa holders for "usual academic activity," if paid by an institution of higher education, a nonprofit organization affiliated with an institution of higher education, or a nonprofit or a governmental research organization. In accordance with the immigration law, the College may make payment of honoraria and travel and incidental expenses to B1, B2, WB, and WT visa holders under the following requirement.

Honoraria

B1, B2, WB, and WT visa holders may be paid an honorarium for usual academic activity not exceeding nine (9) days in duration, provided that such individual has not received honoraria from more than five (5) institutions in the previous six month period.

Travel and Incidental Expenses

B1 and WB visa holders may be reimbursed for reasonable travel and incidental expenses incurred in connection with a usual academic activity, regardless of the duration of the activity and regardless of whether the individual has previously received payment from other educational institutions.

B2 and WT visa holders may be reimbursed for reasonable travel and incidental expenses incurred in connection with a usual academic activity not exceeding nine days in duration, provided that such individual has not received travel and incidental expenses from more than 5 educational institutions in the previous six month period.
